True Happiness - Embodied by Jesus
Matthew 5:1 - 12

God made us for blessedness/happiness, which is why we long for it. Having made us for happiness, God knows exactly what will fulfill our desire for it and He reveals that to us in the Beatitudes:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you." Matthew 5:1 - 12

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Jesus embodied each of the Beatitudes during His life on earth. We can learn what each Beatitude means and how to live them by observing Jesus in the Gospels. Next week, we will begin with "Blessed are the poor in spirit."

2018 Disasters

Cardinal DiNardo of the USCCB is asking parishes to take up a special collection for "2018 Disasters", including Hurricane Florence and any other disaster that may come in 2018...for the humanitarian, long-term recovery and Church needs arising from these storms—in anticipation of more disasters awaiting us this year. Cardinal DiNardo recommends special collection to be taken October 6-7. Please make notation of 2018 Disasters—make check payable to St. Pius X.

Catechism Catechesis

Be watching for this new entry into the bulletin in the weeks to come. The Catechism is so amazing, inspirational, and formative that we just have to share it!

PART TWO: THE CELEBRATION OF THE CHRISTIAN MYSTERY

Why the liturgy?

1066 In the Symbol of the faith the Church confesses the mystery of the Holy Trinity and of the plan of God's "good pleasure" for all creation: the Father accomplishes the "mystery of his will" by giving his beloved Son and his Holy Spirit for the salvation of the world and for the glory of his name.

Such is the mystery of Christ, revealed and fulfilled in history according to the wisely ordered plan that St. Paul calls the "plan of the mystery" and the patristic tradition will call the "economy of the Word incarnate" or the "economy of salvation."

1067 "The wonderful works of God among the people of the Old Testament were but a prelude to the work of Christ the Lord in redeeming mankind and giving perfect glory to God. He accomplished this work principally by the Paschal mystery of his blessed Passion, Resurrection from the dead, and glorious Ascension, whereby 'dying he destroyed our death, rising he restored our life.' For it was from the side of Christ as he slept the sleep of death upon the cross that there came forth 'the wondrous sacrament of the whole Church.'"

For this reason, the Church celebrates in the liturgy above all the Paschal mystery by which Christ accomplished the work of our salvation.

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? - Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Do you know how to save that marriage? Or do you feel helpless? Retrouvaille is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on October 12-14, 2018, please call 503-225-9191 or visit www.helpourmarriage.org

Calling All Sponsors! - A gentle and respectful reminder to all people who have served as Godparents/Sponsors for Baptism and in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Children/Adults and in Confirmation. If you haven't been in recent contact with those you have sponsored, especially if you have not seen them in Mass, please consider calling and encouraging them on their journey with Christ Jesus and His Church. Thank you!
