Palm Sunday—March 24-25, 2018

A Brief Examination of Conscience Based on the Ten Commandments

Penance Services

Monday, March 26, 7:00 pm—St. Pius X
Tuesday, March 27, 7:00 pm—Sacred Heart Parish
Wednesday, March 28, 7:00 pm—St. Augustine

I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me.

Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.

Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation (Jan. 1; the Ascension; Aug. 15; Nov. 1; Dec. 8; Dec. 25)? Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

Honor your father and your mother.

Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

You shall not kill.

Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

You shall not commit adultery.

Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

You shall not steal.

Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse.

Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

Christ's Two Commandments

How well do we love God and others? Do we love as Christ calls us to? In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ gives us Two Commandments: "He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments'" (Mt 22:37-40).

As St. Paul describes for us in his Letter to the Corinthians. "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor 13:4-8). USCCB.org

Family Potluck and Movie Night

Hosted by the Hospitality Commission
Sunday March 25th
Movie: The Scarlet and the Black
Potluck at 3:00pm / Movie at 4:00pm in the Parish Hall
Bring your favorite main dish, salad, dip, or dessert for sharing. Drinks and place settings provided.

Bunco Party—April 21

A fundraiser bunco party will be hosted by St. Pius X Catholic Daughters on Saturday, April 21, from 1-4 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Tickets are available for a $10 donation per person, which goes toward prizes and to support charity. Men, women, and children 12 years and up are invited to join us for a relaxing, fun afternoon of games, snacks, and socializing with one another as we go.

Catholic Daughters are selling tickets for this event after Sunday Masses and in the Parish Hall, beginning March 18. Stop by to pick up your free copy of the instructions on how to play bunco and for details of the event. (We will not be selling on Easter Sunday.) Seating is limited to 80 tickets and no tickets will be sold at the door, so please purchase your tickets early. You may also contact Colleen Quirk for tickets at 541-539-1333.

Called to Protect Parent Meeting

Called to Protect for Young Children has been specifically developed to teach children from pre-school through high school skills how to help keep safe. Child molesters are skilled at "grooming" children, making friends with them, finding ways to be alone with them, and convincing them that the molester really cares for them.

We can teach children how to interrupt these behaviors. Praesidium has reviewed hundreds of cases where, by their own actions, children are able to protect themselves. Called to Protect for Young Children is designed to teach children the skills they need to recognize boundary violations that precede abuse, to remove themselves from uncomfortable situations, and to tell a trusted adult when someone has crossed a boundary with them.

April 8th at 10:15 am—Parent Session

April 29—Rel Ed Class—Called to Protect Session A

May 6—Rel Ed Class—Called to Protect Session B & C

Please mark your calendars. If you wish for your child to Opt-Out of being taught the Called to Protect Program please obtain Opt-Out form at the Parent Session.
