Life's Greatest Lesson

What I've Learned From the Happiest People I Know

by Allen Hunt

You learn things at funerals you would never learn anywhere else. That's because funerals bring clarity. And few people have a funeral like Mrs. Lavish Grace's. When her friends and family gathered at the funeral home and the church to celebrate her life, no one was more surprised by what happened than her grandson, ten-year-old Christopher Grace. On that unique funeral weekend, Christopher experienced things he never could have expected. He also discovered life's greatest lesson. This is his story.

This book, and the parable Allen Hunt shares in it, will show you how to get the most out of your life—how to return to the grace of who you really are.
