Corporal Work of mercy – Bury the dead

During November, we are called in a special way to remember "our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection". A binder is placed in the sanctuary to place the All Souls sheet for your beloved dead who will be remembered in prayer during this month.
Order of prayer in the liturgy 2022

- Send a card to someone who has recently lost a loved one.
- In November it is a traditional time for visiting graves of loved ones.

St. Maurus Mission Appeal

Dear parishioners at St. Pius X church. Once again, thank you for your support of the mission work in Tanzania through St. Maurus Hanga Abbey. This weekend, November 5 and 6, I will share with you at mass about the achievement and the progress of the projects that you have been supporting in southern Tanzania.

White Elephant – Christmas Bazaar

Time to gather your gently used items – all donations can be dropped off at the parish hall on Friday, November 18th from 9 am – 6 pm for the White Elephant Sale on November 19, 2022. Questions call Robin 541-882-7824.

Vote for Life!

... "Our citizenship is in heaven," St. Paul reminds us. I need to guide my earthly-city deliberations with a heavenly-city perspective. I need to form my conscience according to the mind of my Church, not the mind of my party. The first step is to rid my mind of confusion concerning crucial moral issues at play. Conscience leads me to clarify what I stand for--and what I can never stand for--before I decide whom to vote for. Consistent Catholic moral teaching lets me make "a clear distinction between political issues about which men and women of good will can disagree and those issues that have to do with human rights and should never be treated politically," as Bishop David Konderla puts it. ... ## National Vocation Awareness Week is celebrated November 6-12, 2022

Discerning a Vocation is something that requires persistence. The call to a Vocation is something persistent in our hearts, not something fleeting. A persistent trust in our part that God is our Father and leading us to goodness, even if we can't see at the moment what that goodness is. But more importantly, a persistent call from God. If you have a call in your heart that has not gone away, even if you want it to, maybe it's time to listen. <https://www.usccb.org/committees/clergy-consecrated-life-vocations/national-vocation-awareness-week>

Advent 2022 -

The LORD Heals Humanity and Creation

The St. Pius X Catholic Daughters will host an interactive event to prepare us for Advent on Sunday, November 20th at 10:15 AM in the Parish Hall. We will read and reflect upon the Old Testament readings for each Sunday in Advent and sing the Psalm responses and more, in order to discern who and what our Christian hope really is. Please plan to join us with your family and friends!

Women's Bible Study – Thursdays 9:15 am

Biblical Women in Crisis: portraits of faith and trust by Jeanne Kun.

The Thursday morning women's bible study group will start a new study this coming week. We wholeheartedly invite you to join us for prayer, study, and fellowship each Thursday 9:15-10:30 am. For more information contact Mary Lou Kranenburg 541 281 8948. All are welcome.

Divine Mercy Prayer and Action

Divine Mercy Prayer and Action group meets again this Sunday, November 6, at 2 pm in the youth room. All are most welcome to come, it's never too late. Because her writings tell of the spiritual life, wherever you pick it up, it's a good place to start. One of the best parts of our group is when people share, so that we can look through another's eyes at what they see in her experiences of joy, suffering, and the glory of God. Jesus intended that we learn from her.
