Thursday Evening Bible Study Series

The next short-term series will be the Four Last Things: Death, Judgment, Heaven, and Hell. Have you wondered what will occur at your death and what will take place with your soul? This class will look at each of these important topics and examine the Catholic teachings concerning them. Consider coming to one or more of these classes. This series will begin on Thursday, November 30 in the Parish Hall from 6:30 to 8:00 pm.

Advent by Candlelight—December 1st, 6-8 pm

Advent by Candlelight is an opportunity for women to set aside the hustle and bustle of holiday preparations and focus their minds and hearts on the Second Coming of Christ, the theme of Advent, and the true meaning of Christmas.

This event will help women of faith to be more centered in Christ spiritually and maybe a little less stressed as we approach the seasons of Advent and Christmas. You may get overwhelmed as you think about parties, cookies, family, and presents or look at the season as a time of loneliness or dwell on happier memories of the past. Let us relax, sing songs of the season, and hear a beautiful message from our guest speaker. We invite you to an elegant relaxing evening of friendship with the ambiance of soft Christmas music, the glow of candlelight and dessert.

St. Pius X and other local Catholic parishes will celebrate Advent by Candlelight on FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1 from 6-8PM in the Parish Hall. If you would like to attend or host a table please inquire at the office (541) 884-4242 or email office@piusxkf.com. Pick up a handout in the vestibule.

St Vincent de Paul Angel Tree

St. Vincent de Paul will place the Angel tree in the vestibule November 25-26. If you pick an angel, please:

- * Return gifts no later than December 9-10.
- * Purchase new items only
- * All gifts need to be wrapped
- * Multiple gifts need to be bagged together
- * Place the identifying Angel on the gift which specifies

Have you ever wondered? Join us this Sunday, Nov 19

Have you ever wondered what heaven, hell, and purgatory are really like? This will not be a discussion of the Church's teaching on that subject, but instead we will use the writings from St. Faustina and several other Saints (Padre Pio, Catherine of Siena, Catherine of Genoa, Teresa of Avila, St. Lucia from Fatima) who have had experiences concerning heaven, hell, and purgatory. St. Faustina wrote that her Guardian Angel took her to visit the abyss of hell so she could tell souls about it and testify to its existence. All are invited to come and bring friends and family to this presentation on November 19, at 2 PM in the Youth Room.

Volunteer in need for the Holy Family Homeschool Co-op

The Holy Family Homeschool co-op is searching for a volunteer who enjoys spending time with pre-K children. We have 6 children who are not yet school age who need care while their mothers teach the older students.

We have use of a room stocked with educational toys and supplies at the old Sacred Heart School.

Tuesdays and Wednesdays 9 am—12 pm. Please contact Sarah Westbrook at 503-437-1115 for more information or to apply. All volunteers are required to pass a background check with the Dioceses of Baker.

St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry

St Vincent de Paul needs volunteers to help greet clients outside, register them on a sign-in sheet and enter clients in the computer (easy). Usually, one would work just one Wednesday a month. Please contact Barb Rhodes foodpantry.stpiusx@gmail.com or 541-882-1802. Thank you to all our current volunteers.

Vocations

To all young men or women: If you have a tug in your heart----- MAYBE JESUS IS CALLING YOU?? Through the Sacrament of Baptism every Christian has a vocation – a call from God – to holiness and service. This call is lived out by being single, married, ordained as a priest or deacon, or consecrated as a religious brother or sister. The Holy Spirit invites all of us to share our gifts, talents, and lives in service to others. Jesus calls us from a silent voice deep within to “Come and follow me.”
