St. Pius X Remembrance Mass Friday, November 8 at 6:30 PM

Please join us for the Remembrance Mass on November 8th. A time to remember and pray specifically for the loved ones we have lost at St. Pius X. Before mass place pictures of loved ones on the steps of the sanctuary – which is a beautiful visual expression. Those who have attended the Grieving with Great Hope class will also place candles on the steps of the sanctuary in memory of their loved ones. The ministry is to provide prayer and support to the families of our parish who experience the death of a loved one. To assure them their loved one will not be forgotten and that they are not alone. “Bear one another’s burdens and so fulfil the law of Christ” (Gal 6:2)

The next meeting of Divine Mercy Prayer Group will be November 3rd at 2 PM in the Youth Room. We will begin Notebook II of her Diary, which again shows her private prayer life with the Trinity, and gives us the rules she thought she should follow in community. Always, always, good things for us to ponder as we make our way through the Diary. Anytime is a good time to join this group. All are welcome

Making Disciples through Love Sunday, November 10th

Making Disciples through Love Sunday, November 10th at 10:30 AM in the Parish Hall we will host our third Discipleship Forum of the year. Our Lord Jesus said that we make disciples by teaching baptized persons to observe all that He has commanded us. This begs the question: What has Jesus commanded us? To answer this question, we must look to the Church’s teaching on the New Covenant and the Ten Commandments. Many people in the Church think they know the Ten Commandments, but surprisingly few can actually recite all ten in order, let alone specifically explain what the commandments actually consist of. Considering the Church’s consequential teaching on erroneous (errors in) judgment and the necessity of observing the commandments for making disciples, we must all make sure that we not only can list the Ten Commandments, but also be able to explain what they consist of. In this forum, we will contemplate what the New Covenant means for us and we will cover the first three commandments; all toward the end of loving God and neighbor (including enemies) to make disciples for Jesus. In subsequent forums, we will cover the rest of the commandments.

Christmas Boxes

St. Vincent de Paul is preparing for the Christmas boxes and Angel tree giving. SVdP is accepting phone calls for the parishes in the southern deanery. The Angel Tree will be for children and seniors again this year. 50 boxes will be distributed to our community. Please call 541-892-8841.

I invite you to be a host at Advent by Candlelight, on December 6th at 6-8 PM. This is a beautiful event that you and your friends come to relax and focus on the reason for the season. The program includes uplifting Scripture readings, reflections, and caroling.

Advent A time to prepare!

Are you looking for a way to prepare in a special way for the coming of Christ at Christmas? If so, Deacon Paul will be facilitating a weekly Lectio Divina scripture study and faith sharing on Wednesdays at 9:15 a.m. in the Parish Hall during Advent season starting on November 27. Lectio Divina focuses on the gospel passage for the upcoming Sunday and participants gain a deep understanding of it through this dynamic faith sharing experience. Don't let this opportunity pass you by. For more information call Deacon Paul at 541-591-3625.

Catholic - Protestant Dialogue November 14, 6:30 PM

A dialogue on how a person initially becomes and remains a Christian will take place between Vic Scaravilli and Matt Rohrbach, a Southern Baptist pastor from Evergreen Baptist Fellowship. This dialogue will take place on Thursday, November 14 beginning at 6:30 pm at Evergreen Baptist Fellowship, 1964 Summers Lane.

Justification, how a person accepts free the gift of salvation, is one of the main issues that led Protestants to break away from the Catholic Church in the 16th century. If you would like to learn more about the Catholic teaching on this very important topic and see how it compares to Protestantism, please consider this event.
