In this year of Eucharistic Revival, a daily prayer of consecration from a saint known for his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament:

Protestant – Catholic Dialogue

Where and how does a Christian find final and ultimate truth concerning the Christian faith?

If you have wondered how a person can find the fullness of the Christian faith, this dialogue might be of interest to you. The goal for each presenter is to give his understanding of where and how a person can find authentic and accurate Christian truth.

Consider coming if you would:

- like to explore where God's truths can be found.
- hear presentations from two different Christian groups.
- better understand your beliefs.

Divine Mercy Prayer & Action

The Divine Mercy Prayer and Action Group will meet Sunday, Feb.5 at 2 PM in the Youth Room. This week we will begin to read about how she actually met her spiritual director, Fr. Sopocko, and how that led to our being able to read her Diary today. All are welcome, even if you have not attended before. Her Diary is such that one can gain from it beginning at any point.

Circle of Sister Book Club – All ladies welcome

The Circle of Sister Book Club decided to read the second half of My Brother's Keeper and discuss it on Wednesday, March 1st at 6:30 PM at the St. Pius X conference room.

Flyer is on the website at

Because we had invested so much money in the purchase of the book that we wanted to finish reading it and just as the first part of the book was about Jesus' family and his birth, the second part is probably about his ministry and his passion. Very appropriate for the upcoming season.

Some of our group did not read the first half of the book. If anyone has finished the book and would be willing to loan their copy, please contact Deb Scaravilli.
