

Patty Schneier is a life-long Catholic, housewife, and mother of three from the Archdiocese of St. Louis. For the past 20 years Patty has been speaking at parishes, catholic conferences, and retreats across the United States. She brought great joy and faith sharing to our parish in 2017. Patty has been a guest on EWTN and various Catholic Radio shows.

Her book, "Love Letters from Mom on What Matters Most" is an inspiring collection of letters on what it means to be a Catholic in the world today, and why it matters. Her writings and talks encourage all of us to live for Christ, to strive for holiness, and desire heaven.

Keep me as the apple of your eye;
hide me in the shadow of your wings.
Ps 17:8

Dear Daughter,
You are more precious to me than the pupil of the eye is to the body. I long to spend time with you under the shadow of my wings. I want to warm your heart and protect you as a mother bird gathers her young under her wing to protect and comfort them.

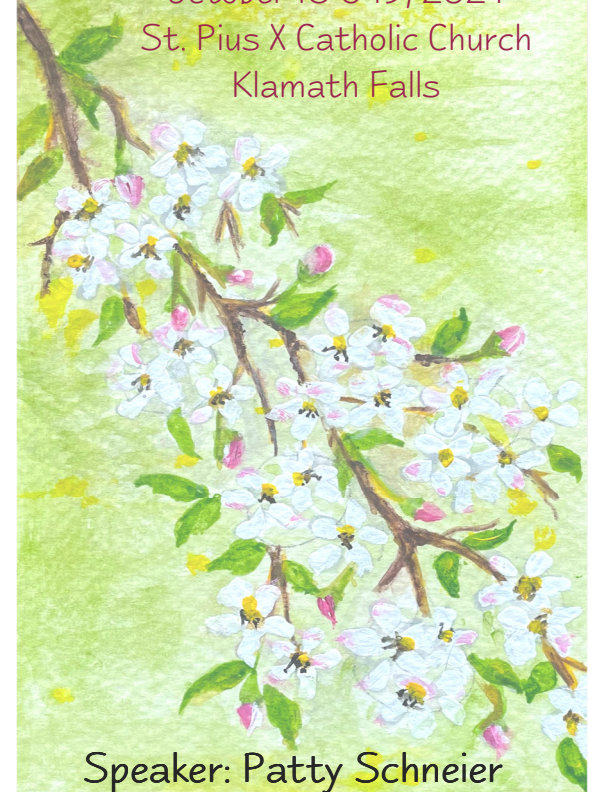

Come spend time with me.
I realize that life is busy, messy and demanding. However, if you set these worldly concerns aside for one day I will bless you abundantly.

From the glorious riches of my Father I will strengthen you and dwell in your heart. Then, being rooted and established in Me, you may grasp how wide, long, high and deep is the love I have for you.

Yours forever, Jesus
